

Light Rail Station Area Planning Community Meeting

May 22, 2013; 6:00 - 8:30 p.m.

City Hall Council Chambers

Meet the project team - learn about environmental analysis and the process for station area planning - find out how you could be impacted and how to get involved in decision-making.

Agenda

6:00-6:20 Sign-in, Refreshments, and Information

- Partner organizations identified below will have representatives available to answer questions and provide hand-outs

6:20-6:40 Welcome and Introductions

- City staff, Planning Commission subcommittee, and consultant team
- Sound Transit
- Futurewise
- Senior Services
- Puget Sound Regional Council
- 185th Station Citizens Committee
- Potential Citizen Committee for 145th or 155th Station

6:40-7:00 Sound Transit Draft Environmental Impact Statement (DEIS)

- What it covers, when the draft will be public, when and how to comment

7:00-7:20 Subarea Planning Process and Timeline

- History of process to date, including voter approval and City Council policy direction
- Difference between Sound Transit stations and City of Shoreline station area planning
- Public Participation

7:20-7:40 Study Area Boundaries

- Difference between study area, Comprehensive Plan and zoning designations
- Criteria for boundaries, what will be studied, and additional opportunities to comment

7:40-8:10 Questions, Answers, and Discussion

- Full audience Q&A

8:10-8:30 Individual Q&A and Information

- Small group discussions in lobby allowing people to focus on areas of interest

