

My name is Mark Rettmann, and I live on NE 170th St, Shoreline, WA.

I am part of the -- Save Shoreline Neighborhoods Group -- which is comprised of over 200 Shoreline residents and voters opposed to the rezone of 1510 and 1517 NE 170th St.

This group represents the community's will and desire not to permanently rezone these residential lots to business lots, for Irons Brothers Construction Company, or any other company.

We urge you to remove this amendment from the final docket, and decline this Proposal now.

Washington state law, as codified in the Revised Code of Washington (or RCW) 42.23 for "Code of Ethics for Municipal Officers", RCW 42.52 for "Ethics in Public Service", and the City of Shoreline Code of Ethics adopted by Council Resolution No. 170, all detail ethics for public service, and, define conflicts of interest.

We respectfully request that Councilmember McGlashan --- recuse himself from voting on this proposal----- as he has an obvious, conflict of interest with Irons Brothers Construction, as he has received political -- campaign contributions -- from Irons Brothers Construction.

This is based on public records, from the campaign finance contributions database from the Washington State's --- Public Disclosure Commission --- (or PDC).

We do not believe -- an impartial decision -- can be made,,, based on this clear conflict of interest.

Councilmember McGlashan, please do the ethical, and legal thing, and recuse yourself from this proposal's vote.

Thank you

Code of Ethics

The purpose of the City of Shoreline Code of Ethics is to strengthen the quality of government through ethical principles which shall govern the conduct of the City's elected and appointed officials, and employees, who shall:

We dedicated to the concepts of effective and democratic local government.

Democratic Leadership. Officials and staff shall honor and respect the principles and spirit of representative democracy and set a positive example of good citizenship by scrupulously observing the letter and spirit of laws, rules and regulations.

Affirm the dignity and worth of the services rendered by government and maintain a deep sense of social responsibility as a trusted public servant.

We dedicated to the highest ideals of honor and integrity in all public and personal relationships.

Public Confidence. Officials and staff shall conduct themselves so as to maintain public confidence in city government and in the performance of the public trust.

Impression of Influence. Officials and staff shall conduct their official and personal affairs in such a manner as to give the clear impression that they cannot be improperly influenced in the performance of their official duties.

Recognize that the chief function of local government at all times is to serve the best interests of all the people.

Public Interest. Officials and staff shall treat their office as a public trust, only using the power and resources of public office to advance public interests, and not to attain personal benefit or pursue any other private interest incompatible with the public good.

Keep the community informed on municipal affairs; encourage communication between the citizens and all municipal officers; emphasize friendly and courteous service to the public; and seek to improve the quality and image of public service.

Accountability. Officials and staff shall assure that government is conducted openly, efficiently, equitably and honorably in a manner that permits the citizenry to make informed judgments and hold city officials accountable.

Respectability. Officials and staff shall safeguard public confidence in the integrity of city government by being honest, fair, caring and respectful and by avoiding conduct creating the appearance of impropriety or which is otherwise unbecoming a public official.

Seek no favor; believe that personal benefit or profit secured by confidential information or by misuse of public time is dishonest.

Business Interests. Officials and staff shall have no beneficial interest in any contract which may be made by, through or under his or her supervision, or for the benefit of his or her office, or accept directly or indirectly, any compensation, gratuity or reward in connection with such contract unless allowed under State law.

Private Employment. Officials and staff shall not engage in, solicit, negotiate for, or promise to accept private employment or render services for private interests or conduct a private business when such employment, service or business creates a conflict with or impairs the proper discharge of their official duties.

Confidential Information. Officials and staff shall not disclose to others, or use to further their personal interest, confidential information acquired by them in the course of their official duties.

Gifts. Officials and employees shall not directly or indirectly solicit any gift or accept or receive any gift whether it be money, services, loan, travel, entertainment, hospitality, promise, or any other form - under the following circumstances: (a) it could be reasonably inferred or expected that the gift was intended to influence the performance of official duties; or (b) the gift was intended to serve as a reward for any official action on the official's or employee's part.

Investments in Conflict with Official Duties. Officials and employees shall not invest or hold any investment, directly or indirectly, in any financial business, commercial or other private transaction that creates a conflict with their official duties.

Personal Relationships. Personal relationships shall be disclosed in any instance where there could be the appearance of a conflict of interest.

Business Relationships. Officials and staff shall not use staff time, equipment, or facilities for marketing or soliciting for private business activities.

Reference Checking. Reference checking and responding to agency requests are a normal function of municipal business and is not prohibited if it does not adversely effect the operation of the City.

Conduct business of the City in a manner which is not only fair in fact, but also in appearance.

Personal Relationships. In quasi-judicial proceedings elected officials shall abide by the directives of RCW 42.36 which requires full disclosure of contacts by proponents and opponents of land use projects which are before the City Council. Boards and Commissions are also subject to these fairness rules when they conduct quasi-judicial hearings.

Not knowingly violate any Washington statutes, City ordinance or regulation in the course of performing their duties.

Adopted by Council - Resolution No. 170
