This process requires the city representative to develop a written scope of the project and ~~any criteria used to select the service provider and then~~ select a qualified contractor from the city's architectural, landscape architectural, and engineering service roster. If the city representative does not choose to use the appropriate roster, then a formal request for qualification process must be followed.

ii. It can be demonstrated that there are insufficient consultants on the roster that possess the required qualifications to perform the scope of work; or

iii. A consultant on the city's roster has previously provided satisfactory service to the city, has previously provided services related to the specific project, and has the qualifications to perform the scope of work.

2. Professional and Nonprofessional Services (Excluding Architectural, Landscape Architectural, and Engineering Services).

If multiple proposals are used to make a selection, a standard process must be used for obtaining all proposals.

b. Contracts in Excess of $50,000. Service contracts that have an estimated cost in excess of $50,000 shall be procured using a formal request for proposal (RFP) process. The development of an RFP along with the proper public notification shall be made in accordance with procedures adopted by the finance administrative services department in the best interest of the city; provided, however, that the city manager may in the following circumstances waive the RFP process for contracts greater than $50,000:

i. ~~It is deemed in the best interest of the city to expedite the acquisition of services~~ Quantifiable costs of delay in using an RFP process are likely to outweigh savings and higher quality performance expected from the RFP process; or

ii. It can be demonstrated that specialized expertise, experience or skill is needed for a successful outcome and outweighs potentially lower price proposals; or

iii. A consultant has previously provided satisfactory service to the city related to the specific project, and has the qualifications to perform the scope of work.

~~This process shall be used before any contract which is renewed or extended for an aggregate amount in excess of $50,000 from the commencement of the contract, whether or not options for additional terms were included in the original contract.~~
